NATIONAL ART TRAINING SCHOOL, LONDON, S.W.

1. THE NATIONAL ART TRAINING SCHOOL is established for the purpose of training Art Masters and Mistresses for the United Kingdom, and for the instruction of students in drawing, painting, modelling, designing for architecture, Manufactures, and Decoration. Purpose of National Art Training School.

2. Free admission to the courses of Instruction is granted to Students in Training, National Scholars, and Free Students (see pars. 6 to 15). Admission is also granted to the general public on payment of fees (see par. 18). Admission to school.

3. The School is open for study every week-day, except Saturday. Day classes from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., with an interval of half an hour for lunch; evening classes from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. for male students, and from 6.30 to 8.30 for female students, except during the months of May, June, and July, when the evening classes meet from 6 to 8 p.m. Life classes and class lectures commence at 10 a.m. and close at 3.30 p.m. Hours of study.

4. The annual Session consists of two Terms, each lasting five months, and commencing on the first Wednesday of October and the 1st of March, and ending on the last day of February and the last Friday of July respectively. Terms.

5. Vacations.—The School re-opens after the Long Vacation, 1891, on Wednesday 7th October. Christmas, the School closes 3 p.m., Tuesday 22nd December 1891, and re-opens 9 a.m., Tuesday 5th January 1892. Easter, the School closes Thursday 14th April and re-opens Monday 25th April. Whitsuntide, the School closes Friday 3rd June, and re-opens Tuesday 14th June. Long Vacation, 1892, the School closes Friday 29th July and re-opens Wednesday 5th October. Vacations.

FREE STUDENTSHIPS, NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS, &c.

6. STUDENTSHIPS IN TRAINING AT THE NATIONAL ART TRAINING SCHOOL.—Students of Schools of Art (whether Studentships in Training.

men or women) who have taken the 1st Certificate of the 3rd Grade, and are preparing to become Teachers, are eligible to compete for admission to the training class of the National Art Training School, with an allowance of from 10s. to 35s. a week. They must attend regularly all the meetings of the school. They may be required to perform certain duties as teachers, and must engage to accept the situations to which they may be recommended. They are not at liberty to accept situations without first obtaining the consent of the Principal. Applicants for admission must fill up and send in Form No. 488 before the 15th January or the 20th July. Students who have been on the list of paid students in training or National Scholars, and who retire with credit, may continue to study in the School as Free Students for one year, and this Free Studentship may be renewed on the conditions laid down in paragraph 29 (d) of this Prospectus.

training.

7. The allowances to students in training are granted for one term only, and are renewable; but no male student can remain more than four years on the paid list, and no female student more than two years without special sanction.

National Scholarships.

8. Thirty Royal Exhibitions, 10 open each year to the National Art Training School or the Metropolitan School of Art, Dublin.

A Royal Exhibition is tenable for three years, and entitles the holder to free admission to the National Art Training School at South Kensington or the Metropolitan School of Art, Dublin, during that time, with a maintenance allowance of 25s. a week for the session of about 42 weeks each year, with third-class railway fare for one journey to and fro, each session, between the home of the Scholar and London or Dublin.

The Royal Exhibitions are held on the condition that the Exhibitioner attends the course of instruction laid down for him regularly, complies with the rules laid down for his guidance, and makes satisfactory progress.

Royal Exhibitions are only open to students on account of whose instruction payments on results can be made, and the competitor must be under 22 years of age on the 1st of May of the year in which he competes.

9. Sixteen National Scholarships, eight open each year to the National Art Training School and South Kensington Museum.

The National Scholarship is tenable for two years, and in special cases may be renewed for a third. The Scholar receives a maintenance allowance of 25s. a week, during the term he is required to be in London, about 42 weeks each year, with third-class railway fare for one journey to and fro, each session, between his home and London.

Only Students of Schools of Art who are engaged in trades which depend upon decorative Art are eligible to compete for National Scholarships. The selection will be made by giving due weight to the nature and requirements of the trades represented by the Candidates, to the evidence they give of special aptitude for design, and to the progress they have made at the Schools at which they have studied as shown by the works they submit and the Examinations they have passed. Applications must be made on Art Form No. 488, accompanied by drawings, designs, and other evidence of the Candidate's ability before the 20th July.

The National Scholar will be required to prosecute a course of studies laid down for him by the Director for Art in the Museum and National Art Training School, and will only hold his Scholarship so long as he pursues his studies diligently, and shows satisfactory progress.

10. Students in training and National Scholars may in special cases receive grants in aid of their travelling expenses in visiting Foreign Schools and Galleries. They may be required to do special work for the Department.

Grants for students' travelling expenses.

11. The Department reserves the right to retain works done in the School by Students in Training or National Scholars.

12. Should the conduct or progress of National Scholars or Students in training be unsatisfactory their allowances may be reduced or wholly withdrawn.

Subject to disallowance.

13. ADMISSION OF STUDENTS OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY TO THE NATIONAL ART TRAINING SCHOOL.—Students of the Royal Academy who desire to become Teachers, and who have attended the Life Class or Upper Division of the Architectural Class there for six months, are qualified to compete for admission to the Training School, and to receive an allowance of 15s. per week. This allowance will be withdrawn if the student does not succeed in obtaining the Art Class Teacher's certificate, and completing the examination for the 1st certificate of the 3rd Grade within the period of three terms.

Of Students
of the Royal
School of Art Needlework.

STUDENTS OF THE ROYAL SCHOOL OF ART NEEDLEWORK who desire to avail themselves of the instruction in the National Art Training School are admitted on payment of a fee of 1*l.* per term of five months for one day per week.

Of Students
of the School of Wood Carving.

STUDENTS OF THE SCHOOL OF WOOD CARVING who wish to attend the lectures on Design are admitted without entrance fee and at half the fee for the course of lectures.

Other Free
Studentships.

14. FREE STUDENTSHIPS AT THE NATIONAL ART TRAINING SCHOOL.—Industrial Students in a School of Art or in the National Art Training School who have paid fees for one year and are prepared to become Teachers, Manufacturers' Draughtsmen, Designers, or Art workmen, are entitled, after taking the Art Class Teacher's Certificate, to apply through the Secretary of their Schools for free admission for one year to the National Art Training School. This privilege may be renewed for another year, provided they obtain the Certificate of Group I. of the 3rd Grade, or a prize in the National Competition, or a first class in two or more subjects of the 3rd Grade Examinations.

Free student-ships for modellers.

Renewal.

15. Three free studentships for Modellers, tenable for one year, are open to competition by Students of Art Schools who execute successfully a model of a head from the antique. The competition for these Studentships takes place on the second Wednesday in July and following days at the school. They may be renewed for a second year on taking the Art Class Teacher's Certificate or a National Competition prize.

AWARDS and GRANTS to NON-FEE-PAYING STUDENTS.

Travelling
scholarships.

16. THREE TRAVELLING SCHOLARSHIPS of 50*l.* a year each are offered for competition among the National Scholars, Students in training, and Free Students.

Honorary awards.

17. HONORARY AWARDS only are made to Free Students, National Scholars, and Students in training, in respect of successes gained by them at the 3rd Grade Examinations and in the National Competition.

18. DIVISION FOR STUDENTS PAYING FEES.

The scale of fees for the admission of the general public to the Schools is as follows:—

The payment of £ 5 0 0 per term entitles a Candidate to admission to the School for 5 months for both day and evening classes.

In addition to these fees an entrance fee of 10s. is chargeable to a Student on first joining the day classes, or on rejoining them after an absence of a year; but it is not chargeable to Free-students, or to Students who, after admission to the School as Free-students or Governesses, may change their position and become Students paying these fees, except after a year's absence.

DAY CLASSES.

The payment of £ 1 1 0 per term entitles a Candidate to admission to a special Architectural Class held on Tuesdays.

The payment of £ 1 1 0 per term entitles a Candidate to admission to a Special Designing Class on either Mondays or Tuesdays. (The fee is 2l. 2s. for both days.)

The payment of £ 1 0 0 per month entitles Governesses in private schools or families to attend day classes for three months in any one year.

EVENING CLASSES.

The payment of £ 2 0 0 per term of five months entitles a Candidate to admission every evening, except Saturdays. (For Male Students.)

The payment of £ 1 0 0 per term of five months entitles a Candidate to admission on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays (for female Students) from 6.30 to 8.30 p.m., or from 6 to 8 p.m.

The payment of £ 0 5 0 per term entitles Schoolmasters, Schoolmistresses, and Pupil-teachers of Public Elementary Schools to attend on any two evenings in each week, on one of which instruction in Blackboard drawing and demonstration will be compulsory.

AN EVENING ARTIZAN CLASS is held in the Elementary Room, subjects of 2nd Grade Examination only.

The payment of £ 0 15 0 per term or 5s. per month entitles a Candidate to admission for five evenings weekly.

The payment of £ 0 10 0 per term or 3s. per month entitles a Candidate to admission for three evenings weekly.

Students of this Class who have paid fees in it for two consecutive terms, and have passed in all subjects of the 2nd Grade Certificate, and Schoolmasters and Mistresses who hold the Elementary School Teacher's ("D") Certificate, may also work in the general class-rooms at the same fees as an evening artizan.

Students who have passed the 2nd Grade examination in Freehand Drawing may join the School at any time during the session, on payment of fees for not less than five months. At the end of the five months, if there be less than five months between that time and the end of the session in July, the student may remain until the end of the session on payment of a proportional fee for each week unexpired up to the last Friday of July. The months of August and September, being the vacation, are not counted as part of the five months paid for.

Pass 2nd Grade Examination. Freehand required.

19. Students who have not passed the 2nd Grade Examination in Freehand Drawing cannot be admitted until they
